Event Involvement

Let's Chat

We try to have as much tenant involvement as possible with The Orchard's events. If you feel like your store or restaurant would be a good fit in an upcoming event give the marketing department a call. We will do our best to make you a part of the magic! Whether it's through an online/social media promotion or participating in the event itself we want your store to be involved!

Please email or call Paige Jeschke, Marketing Coordinator, for more details.
